

Hannah Hizer
3/20/26
Domain 4D: Joining School Community

Below is the introduction flyer that I sent home to parents at the beginning of my placement.

Reflection:

I created this at the beginning of my placement so that families could find out a little bit more about me. I worked closely with my host to make sure that these papers were sent home and parents received them. This created a solid foundation for me to be able to have communication with parents further.